We go beyond

We go beyond for worker wellbeing

We understand that worker wellbeing is important to councils, and believe that every worker has the right to feel safe and secure at work. That's why we work with local government to deliver solutions that optimise the emotional, mental and physical wellbeing of their employees. Our injury prevention and management specialists can educate your staff on workplace safety, help you identify risks, and support injured workers in their return to work.

Whatever it is, we'll go beyond to tailor a solution to the unique needs of your greatest asset—your employees—because your workers' wellbeing should not be left to chance.

To find out how we can help you with your workers' wellbeing, please visit the Wellness Zone at the StateCover stand.

WELCOME FROM THE PRESIDENT

LGNSW ANNUAL CONFERENCE
PROGRAM 2018

Welcome from the President

Cr Linda Scott

It is a delight and an honour to welcome you to the 2018 LGNSW Annual Conference, the focal point of the local government year and the main policy setting forum for the sector.

We're excited to be in Albury for our conference, which affords the opportunity for representatives from across NSW to share ideas, seek inspiration, interact, establish advocacy priorities, and determine policy directions for the coming year.

I thank Premier Gladys Berijiklian, Minister for Local Government Gabrielle Upton, Shadow Minister for Local Government Peter Primrose, Federal Minister for Local Government Senator the Hon Bridget McKenzie (invited), and Federal Shadow Minister for Local Government Stephen Jones for joining us.

You'll be inspired by our keynote speaker Craig Reucassel, the host of War on Waste, and by four-time Olympian and 2002 Olympic Gold Medallist Steven Bradbury OAM.

There will be thought-provoking discussion on the hot topic of smart cities and associated innovation, ideas, technology, data and research, as well as sessions examining case studies of AR Bluett Award-winning councils in 2016 and 2017; legal responsibilities for elected members; and developing capabilities for elected members. Our trade exhibition will showcase the latest products and services available to the sector.

We appreciate the generous support of Elite Sponsor StateCover Mutual Limited, Premier Sponsors NSW Small Business Commissioner and Service NSW, Planning Sponsor NSW Planning & Environment, Distinguished Sponsors Local Government Super and Environment Protection Authority, and all of our trade exhibitors.

Our conference is a perfect opportunity for debate and information sharing and I trust you will find it valuable. Thank you for playing a part in shaping our collective priorities for the future.

Welcome to Albury

Cr Kevin Mack, Mayor of Albury

Our warmest welcome to our esteemed colleagues, sponsors and special guests to the 2018 Local Government NSW Annual Conference in the City of Albury, on Wiradjuri country. It's appropriate that we gather in a beautiful regional city for this year's forum to encourage delegates to discuss a state-wide approach to collaborative and strategic thinking that can deliver growth and additional benefits to our regions.

When we are confronted daily by challenges it is extremely important to provide solutions to our communities. To that end regions affected by drought are at the forefront of all our thinking. Challenges like this build resilience and capacity for us all to work closer in times of need.

With the advent of joint organisations across most of our regions, it is timely that we sit down as one to discuss strategic priorities in a collaborative setting to provide our regions with resourcing, direction and support.

We hope we can achieve positive outcomes and key learnings that unite us to continue to be heard and respected at a state and federal level in what continues to be a changing political environment; but, most importantly, to make a real difference in our communities.

We trust that you enjoy your visit to Albury, one of Australia's leading regional cities, which continues to grow and evolve as the jewel in the crown of southern NSW.
